

West & Midlands Iris Group Data Protection Policy.

The General Data Protection Regulations require that the W&MIG take appropriate action to ensure that personal data that it may hold and publish is properly secured and that it is used only for business of the W&MIG and with the informed consent of the Data Subject. If you have supplied your email address and other personal details, the W&MIG will use this data to contact you about events and items of interest to Irisarians and to send material in electronic and paper form as appropriate. Your information will not be shared with any third party. Should you leave the W&MIG your information will be archived and retained to ensure that W&MIG complies with good practice in maintaining its historical records and complies with any legal requirements. You may request a copy of the information about you which is held by the W&MIG or require that the W&MIG delete it. Unless the W&MIG is required to continue to hold some of the data it will delete your data as requested. All such requests should be addressed to the secretary at the address published in the W&MIG Newsletter.
